

ORIGINAL ART AND ARTISAN CRAFTS

Water influences every aspect of life on an island, inspiring writers, artists, photographers and dreamers

The Baccalieu Gallery, sits near the shores of Trinity Bay in historic Heart's Content, and embraces its rural location. The work in the gallery reflects Newfoundland's coastal and aquatic environment through rich interpretations by visual artists and artisans.

The Gallery showcases the boats and water paintings of palette knife artist Jeanette Jobson, complemented by the work of a range of talented gallery artists.
